SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED.

To Choose the Successor of the Late Representative Dimmit.
Austin, Dec. 11.—A proclamation has been issued by the governor calling for a special election to be held in the One Hundred and Fourth representative district on January 10 next to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Representative Robert P.
Dimmit. This district is composed of the counties of Young, Throckmorton, Haskell, Stonewall, Knox, Baylor and Archer.

In the railroad commission's order just issued modifying its former order requiring the International and Great Northern railway to run double daily passenger service between Laredo and San Antonio and allowing the road to run a mixed through train, the commission reserves the right to cancel this last order if the mixed train proves unsatisfactory, without further notice. The order is effective Dec. 16.

PIANO TRUST CHARGED.

Attorneys For Party Charged With Forgery Declare It Exists.

Houston, Dec. 11.—In the criminal district court Tuesday morning, unusual developments marked the progress of the trial of a former agent of a piano company, charged with forgery and embezzlement in thirty-two indictments. The defense asked for a continuance while opportunity be afforded to investigate a piano trust declared to exist in Texas. A list of piano companies north and east is given. The document is a lengthy one.
The court took the matter under advisement.

NO PARDON FOR COOPER.

President Roosevelt Refuses to Grant For Second Time Request.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The president Tuesday refused to pardon John P. Cooper of McGregor, McLennan county, now serving a five years' sentence at Leavenworth. Cooper was cashier of the National bank of Mc-Gregor, that failed because of extensive cotton speculations, and has already served three years. The president refused the pardon last year, but Congressman Beall got him to reopen the case this year. The refusal was made because the president's policy is not to interfere in national bank convictions. Cooper's family is now living at Waxahachie.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Mary it is alleged, was trying to throw Mrs.

McAntee down the cellar stairs.
Mr. McAntee is a member of "the Holy Communion in this city, but is PREAMBLE REPORTED.

Document as Agreed Upon by Standing Committee Handed In.

Guthrie, Dec. 11.—The standing committee reported the following preamble to the constitution:

"We, the people of the state of Oklahoma, invoking the guidance of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in order to secure and perpetuate the blessings of civil and religious liberty, to secure just and rightful government and to promote our mutual welfare and happiness, do order and establish this constitution." The committee of the whole accepted the ordinance according to the terms of the enabling act.

C. N. Haskell, a delegate, submitted a bill to print journals for $1,500, saying he was not after the printing, but wanted to give the committee on expense a basis to work upon.

Williams of Durant introduced a proposition for a 2-cent railroad fare.

A proposition by President Murray prohibits the leaving of more than $50,000 to one child by a deceased parent, citing examples of the colossal fortunes of the Rothschilds, Vanderbilts and Astors. President Murray also wants the constitution of the United States amended so the legislature may recall United States senators.

The Oklahoma constitutional convention opened its third week by adopting a resolution which formally accepts the enabling act, imposing certain conditions on the new state. Monday's session was marked by a lively run of business. Planks having for a disposition of the prohibition, railroad and labor questions were among the most important submitted.

Peter Hazraty, an Indian Territory delegate, district president of the United Mine Workers of America, looked after labor's rights by preparing an eight-hour law on public works, a fellow servant law and ordinances affecting the laboring man in general.

The resolution calling for a separate submission of the prohibition question was disposed of without discussion, being referred to the committee on liquor traffic.

Suspicious Case on Steamer Franky Furt Proves to Be This.

Galveston, Dec. 11.—The suspicious case of illness among the passengers on the North German Lloyd steamer Frankfurt, which arrived in the roads Sunday, and which caused the detention of the vessel in quarantine, proved to be a mild case of chickenpox, and therefore the vessel was allowed to come to the docks Monday morning.
Arriving at pier 28 about noon, preparations were made at once for the landing of the nearly 500 passengers, but on account of the crowded condition of the dock the work was performed at a great disadvantage.

Kate Brownlee Horton.

New York read a sketch of the life new church is one of several for which she provided funds. Her husband established two large memorial windows
